THOMAS R. TIZZIO
SENIOR VICE CHAIRMAN

June 8, 1999

To Our Insureds:

I am writing to call your attention to a situation that has the potential to cause unprecedented dislocation to businesses in the United States and throughout the world. As many of you know, thousands, perhaps millions, of computers and devices with embedded microchips record only the last two digits of a year. As a result, they may not be able to recognize that January 1, 2000 (or subsequent dates) comes after December 31, 1999. As soon as dates in the Year 2000 become relevant to the operation of products or business transactions - a process that has already begun - computers and microchips containing the "millennium bug" may produce erroneous calculations or cease to function, causing problems that can range from the merely inconvenient to the potentially disastrous. Inventory and accounting systems will be affected; so will credit-card validation, electronic data interchange, automated banking reports, pension benefit payments, drug distribution systems for pharmacies and hospitals, and mechanical systems operating everything from office building environmental controls and elevator banks to telephone switches and oil refineries. The cost of fixing the problem in the United States alone has been estimated at more than $600 billion.

Whether the dislocation resulting from this "bug" will be crippling or merely extraordinarily expensive, we at AIG believe that any business that uses or is affected by computers - in other words, every business in the country - must respond immediately, proactively, and aggressively. Most Year 2000 problems can be averted, given sufficient foresight, resources, and will. Companies will be judged - and, in some cases, will succeed or fail - depending on how they address these issues.

At AIG, we have identified those of our systems that are subject to Year 2000 risk, and we are well on the way to ensuring that all of our systems will be Year 2000-compliant in time to prevent any significant disruption or dislocation in our business or in the services we provide to our insureds. We are also communicating with the third-party brokers, agents, and administrators with whom we deal to alert them to these issues and encourage them to take similar actions. Every process to address Year 2000 should include backup and contingency plans to ensure that any incidents that do occur have minimal impact on operations.

The principal purpose of this letter is to encourage you, in the strongest possible terms, to do what is necessary to ensure that you have the same degree of comfort about the operation of your business in the face of potential Year 2000 problems as we have about ours. The Year 2000 bug is, first and foremost, a business and technical problem that must be addressed on that basis. It cannot be too strongly emphasized that a company's most important response to the Year 2000 problem is to take all feasible steps to eliminate the problem on a technical basis - or, to the extent the problem cannot be eliminated, to minimize its impact. Resources must be assembled and managed; the board of directors should take an active and ongoing role in ensuring that management has identified, addressed, and resolved problems on a timely basis.

Commercial Umbrella Policy Form

Various provisions in this policy restrict coverage. Read the entire policy carefully to determine rights, duties and what is and is not covered.

Throughout this policy, the words "you" and "your" refer to the Named Insured as defined in Insuring Agreement IV, Definitions. The words "we", "us" and "our" refer to the Company providing this insurance. The word "Insured" means any person or organization qualifying as such in Insuring Agreement IV, Definitions.

In consideration of the payment of the premium and in reliance upon the statements in the Declarations we agree with you to provide coverage as follows:

Insuring Agreements

I. Coverage

We will pay on behalf of the Insured those sums in excess of the Retained Limit that the Insured becomes legally obligated to pay by reason of liability imposed by law or assumed by the Insured under an Insured Contract because of Bodily Injury, Property Damage, Personal Injury or Advertising Injury that takes place during the Policy Period and is caused by an Occurrence happening anywhere in the world. The amount we will pay for damages is limited as described in Insuring Agreement III, Limits of Insurance.

If we are prevented by law or statute from paying on behalf of the Insured, then we will, where permitted by law or statute, indemnify the Insured for those sums in excess of the Retained Limit.

II. Defense

A. We shall have the right and duty to defend any claim or suit seeking damages covered by the terms and conditions of this policy when:

1. The applicable Limits of Insurance of the underlying policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance and the Limits of Insurance of any other underlying insurance providing coverage to the Insured have been exhausted by payment of claims to which this policy applies; or
2. Damages are sought for Bodily Injury, Property Damage, Personal Injury or Advertising Injury covered by this policy but not covered by any underlying insurance listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance or any other underlying insurance providing coverage to the Insured.

B. When we assume the defense of any claim or suit:

1. We will defend any suit against the Insured seeking damages on account of Bodily Injury, Property Damage, Personal Injury or Advertising Injury even if such suit is groundless, false or fraudulent, but we have the right to investigate, defend and settle the claim as we deem expedient.
2. We will pay the following, to the extent that they are not included in the underlying policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance or in any other insurance providing coverage to the Insured:
 - a. premiums on bonds to release attachments for amounts not exceeding our Limits of Insurance, but we are not obligated to apply for or furnish any such bond;
 - b. premiums on appeal bonds required by law to appeal any claim or suit we defend, but we are not obligated to apply for or furnish any such bond;
 - c. all costs taxed against the Insured in any claim or suit we defend;

What, then, should your organization do? There is obviously no single general solution to a problem that will have as many different manifestations as there are addressees of this letter, but a few common sense guideposts may be helpful:

- If you have not yet evaluated your Year 2000 exposure, do it now. Assemble whatever resources are needed to get a handle on the scope of the problem at your organization now, so that remedial efforts can be started without further delay. Most public companies will already have started this process in response to SEC disclosure requirements, but everyone should take a good, hard look at their compliance efforts to ensure that nothing has been overlooked.
- Set priorities. What is critical and what merely important? What can be fixed and what should be junked?
- Be practical. Many "Year 2000 questionnaires" seem designed as much to transfer potential blame as to solve the problem. If there is a truly crucial third party -- your payroll services vendor, for example, or the sole supplier of an indispensable raw material -- don't just send a questionnaire. Instead, give serious consideration to direct testing and evaluation of the vendor or supplier's systems. If there is a crippling Year 2000 problem, a later breach of warranty claim against the supplier's trustee in bankruptcy will not provide you a great deal of comfort.
- Test, test, and then test some more. Expect and plan for the unexpected.

As I said at the outset of this letter, the potential for dislocation from Year 2000 problems is unprecedented. But so is the level of knowledge concerning the problem and the technical ability to solve it. I urge all of our insureds to address their Year 2000 issues promptly and aggressively.

Senior Vice Chairman
Thomas R. Tizio

- d. pre-judgment interest awarded against the Insured on that part of the judgment we pay. If we make an offer to pay the applicable Limit of Insurance, we will not pay any pre-judgment interest based on that period of time after the offer;
- e. all interest that accrues after entry of judgment and before we have paid, offered to pay or deposited in court the part of the judgment that is within our applicable Limit of Insurance;
- f. the Insured's expenses incurred at our request.

We will not defend any suit or claim after our applicable Limits of Insurance have been exhausted by payment of judgments or settlements.

All expenses we incur in the defense of any suit or claim are in addition to our Limits of Insurance.

- C. In all other instances except A. above, we will not be obligated to assume charge of the investigation, settlement or defense of any claim made, suit brought or proceeding instituted against the Insured. We will, however, have the right and shall be given the opportunity to participate in the defense and trial of any claims, suits or proceedings relative to any Occurrence which, in our opinion, may create liability on our part under the terms of this policy. If we exercise such right, we will do so at our own expense.

III. Limits of Insurance

- A. The Limits of Insurance shown in Item 3 of the Declarations and the rules below state the most we will pay regardless of the number of:

- 1. Insureds;
- 2. Claims made or suits brought; or
- 3. Persons or organizations making claims or bringing suits.

- B. The General Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay for all damages covered under Insuring Agreement I except:

- 1. Damages included in the Products-Completed Operations Hazard; and
- 2. Coverages included in the policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance to which no underlying aggregate limit applies.

- C. The Products-Completed Operations Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay for all damages included in the Products-Completed Operations Hazard.

- D. Subject to B. and C. above, whichever applies, the Each Occurrence Limit is the most we will pay for the sum of damages covered under Insuring Agreement I because of all Bodily Injury, Property Damage, Personal Injury and Advertising Injury arising out of any one Occurrence.

If the applicable limits of insurance of the policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance or of other insurance providing coverage to the Insured are reduced or exhausted by payment of one or more claims that would be insured by our policy we will:

- 1. In the event of reduction, pay in excess of the reduced underlying limits of insurance; or
- 2. In the event of exhaustion of the underlying limits of insurance, continue in force as underlying insurance.

The Limits of Insurance of this policy apply separately to each consecutive annual period and to any remaining period of less than 12 months, starting with the beginning of the policy period shown in the Declarations, unless the policy period is extended after issuance for an additional period of less than 12 months. In that case, the additional period will be deemed part of the last preceding period for purposes of determining the Limits of Insurance.

E. Retained Limit

We will be liable only for that portion of damages in excess of the Insured's Retained Limit which is defined as the greater of either:

1. The total of the applicable limits of the underlying policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance and the applicable limits of any other underlying insurance providing coverage to the Insured; or
2. The amount stated in the Declarations as Self Insured Retention as a result of any one Occurrence not covered by the underlying policies listed in the Schedule of Underlying Insurance nor by any other underlying insurance providing coverage to the Insured;

and then up to an amount not exceeding the Each Occurrence Limit as stated in the Declarations.

VI. Conditions

A. Appeals

If the Insured or the Insured's underlying insurers do not appeal a judgment in excess of the Retained Limit, we have the right to make such an appeal. If we elect to appeal, our liability on such an award or judgment shall not exceed our Limits of Insurance as stated in Item 3 of the Declarations plus the cost and expense of such appeal.

B. Audit

We may audit and examine your books and records as they relate to this policy at any time during the period of this policy and for up to three years after the expiration or termination of this policy.

C. Bankruptcy or Insolvency

Your bankruptcy, insolvency or inability to pay or the bankruptcy, insolvency or inability to pay of any of your underlying insurers will not relieve us from the payment of any claim covered by this policy.

But under no circumstances will such bankruptcy, insolvency or inability to pay require us to drop down and replace the Retained Limit or assume any obligation within the Retained Limit area.

D. Cancellation

1. You may cancel this policy. You must mail or deliver advance written notice to us stating when the cancellation is to take effect.
2. We may cancel this policy. If we cancel because of non-payment of premium, we must mail or deliver to you not less than ten (10) days advance written notice stating when the cancellation is to take effect. If we cancel for any other reason, we must mail or deliver to you not less than ninety (90) days advance written notice stating when the cancellation is to take effect. Mailing that notice to you at your mailing address shown in Item 1 of the Declarations will be sufficient to prove notice.
3. The policy period will end on the day and hour stated in the cancellation notice.
4. If we cancel, final premium will be calculated pro rata based on the time this policy was in force. Final premium will not be less than the pro rata share of the Minimum Premium as shown in Item 4 of the Declarations.
5. If you cancel, final premium will be more than pro rata; it will be based on the time this policy was in force and increased by our short rate cancellation table and procedure. Final premium will not be less than the short rate share of the Minimum Premium as shown in Item 4 of the Declarations.
6. Premium adjustment may be made at the time of cancellation or as soon as practicable thereafter but the cancellation will be effective even if we have not made or offered any refund due you. Our check or our representative's check, mailed or delivered, shall be sufficient tender of any refund due you.
7. The first Named Insured in Item 1 of the Declarations shall act on behalf of all other Insureds with respect to the giving and receiving of notice of cancellation and the receipt of any refund that may become payable under this policy.
8. Any of these provisions that conflict with a law that controls the cancellation of the insurance in this policy is changed by this statement to comply with that law.

E. Changes

Notice to any agent or knowledge possessed by any agent or any other person will not effect a waiver or a change in any part of this policy. This policy can only be changed by a written endorsement that becomes a part of this policy and that is signed by one of our authorized representatives.

F. Duties In The Event Of An Occurrence, Claim Or Suit

1. You must see to it that we are notified as soon as practicable of an Occurrence which may result in a claim under this policy. To the extent possible, notice should include:
 - a. how, when and where the Occurrence took place;
 - b. the names and addresses of any injured persons and witnesses; and
 - c. the nature and location of any injury or damage arising out of the Occurrence.
2. If a claim is made or suit is brought against any Insured that is reasonably likely to involve this policy you must notify us in writing as soon as practicable.

4. No Insureds will, except at their own cost, voluntarily make a payment, assume any obligation, or incur any expense, other than for first aid, without our consent.

G. Inspection

We have the right, but are not obligated, to inspect your premises and operations at any time. Our inspections are not safety inspections. They relate only to the insurability of your premises and operations and the premiums to be charged. We may give you reports on the conditions we find. We may also recommend changes. While they may help reduce losses, we do not undertake to perform the duty of any person or organization to provide for the health or safety of your employees or the public. We do not warrant that your premises or operations are safe or healthful or that they comply with laws, regulations, codes or standards.

H. Legal Actions Against Us

There will be no right of action against us under this insurance unless:

1. You have complied with all the terms of this policy; and
2. The amount you owe has been determined with our consent or by actual trial and final judgment.

This insurance does not give you the right to add us as a defendant in an action against you to determine your liability.
